

Oct 25, 2021

AAU President stresses the importance of honoring outstanding students

The Deanship of Student Affairs celebrated the honoring of distinguished students for the second semester of the academic year 2020-2021, in encouragement and appreciation for their efforts throughout the year, and motivating other students for excellence.

The celebration included 70 students from different colleges and was organized at Al Ain campus in the presence of Prof. Ghaleb El Refae- AAU President, Prof. Ibtehal Abu Rezeq- Vice President of Development and Follow Up, and Deans. While at Abu Dhabi campus was attended by Prof. Amer Qasem- AAU Vice President, Dr. Hani Al Jarrah- Deputy Dean of Student Affairs, and Deputy Deans.

On this occasion, the AAU President congratulated the outstanding students and their families, pointing out that the honoring ceremony for the outstanding students is one of the most important events that are organized and to which the University pays great attention, in order to support and nurture the outstanding students as the real wealth of the nation. He urged the students to make more efforts to continue to excel, stressing that excellence requires intense efforts and serious work in order to reach it, praising the role of parents in supporting the student and providing him with the appropriate environment for creativity and diligence.

The AAU Vice President affirmed the keenness of Al Ain University to take care of all students, especially the outstanding ones, within the framework of its keenness to maintain communication between students and the university, support them and urge them to excel, by creating a distinct and multidisciplinary learning environment.

The Dean of Student Affairs stressed Al Ain University's keenness to organize such an event, each semester, which aims to encourage the students to continue their excellence and make more effort in the academic achievement.

Press Release Link