Apr 07, 2022

The Deanship of Student Affairs participates in the World Health Day activities in cooperation with SEHA

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University, Al Ain Campus, participated in the activities of the World Health Day, which was held by the Department of Marketing and Institutional Communication – SEHA- at the Al Ain Zoo.

The events included; a walkathon, sports exercises, entertainment activities, and competitions, in addition to a healthy food and beverage corner. Where students of determination and staff participated.

This event comes in the interest to preserve human health and the planet, and enhancing physical movement and public health, especially during the pandemic.

Press Release Link